

I live in the state of Indiana and do not want a lower standard to the do not call list. I do not feel that any company has a right to call me at a private number unless I have given them explicit rights to do so. I am of the opinion that any calls made to my house are an infringement to my right of privacy.